The Burning Bowl Ceremony is a sacred tradition where participants are invited to release the emotional and spiritual baggage of the past year and set positive intentions for the year ahead. This event provides a deeply spiritual opportunity to clear away old patterns, negative emotions, and past experiences, creating space for new growth, clarity, and renewal.

"Starting the new year with a clear heart and mind is an empowering way to embrace what's next," says Lisa E. Lee, L.U.T.; C.S.E., Spiritual Leader of Unity of Las Vegas. "The Burning Bowl Ceremony is a time for reflection, release, and renewal, and we welcome everyone to join us in this sacred process, whether in person or online, to start the year with intention and purpose."

About the Burning Bowl Ceremony:

The Burning Bowl Ceremony is a long-standing Unity tradition that allows participants to release what no longer serves them. Attendees will write down the thoughts, emotions, or experiences they wish to let go of from the past year. These written intentions are then symbolically burned as a way of clearing space for new goals, fresh starts, and spiritual growth in the year ahead.

About Unity of Las Vegas:

Founded on October 11, 1961, as Unity Church of Desert by Rev. Marie Kapp, Unity of Las Vegas has evolved into a thriving spiritual community. Under the leadership of Lisa E. Lee, L.U.T.; C.S.E., Unity of Las Vegas continues its mission to foster spiritual growth, healing, and empowerment for all who seek it. As part of the global Unity movement, the church offers an inclusive, non-denominational environment where individuals from all backgrounds can find inspiration, support, and community.

Unity of Las Vegas invites individuals to join their Sunday services, participate in workshops, and engage in community outreach programs that promote personal transformation and collective healing.
